

Temporary regulation on additions to the regulation on studies and examinations at Noroff Vocational School - postponed censorship deadline for public holidays

Approved by the board on 11.10.2024 based on Act 1 July 2018 no. 57 relating to tertiary vocational education (The Vocational Education Act) § 21.

§ 1. Censorship deadline

Noroff Vocational School can extend the examination deadline for a course assignment or exam if working days in the examination period coincide with public holidays.

The extension of the censorship deadline can at most correspond to the number of working days that are lost in the censorship period.

This provision applies to both course assignments and exams with a three-week marking deadline.

§ 2. Duration

These regulations come into force immediately and apply to course assignments and exams at Noroff Vocational School for the school year 2024/2025.
